

Assistance League of Greater Cincinnati Social Media Terms of Use

Assistance League of Greater Cincinnati (ALGC) welcomes comments, including constructive criticism. We will do our best to respond to inquiries in a timely manner.

By using or accessing ALGC's social media platforms, you agree to comply with these Terms of Use. We may block or report any content that is a violation of these terms or is contrary to our organization's values. Personal attacks, vulgarity, sexism, or racism will not be tolerated. We reserve the right to remove, report, block or ban any user for comments that violate our Terms of Use.

By accessing, affiliating with, this account, your identity may be visible to third parties not affiliated with ALGC. In addition, third parties may be able to access your profile and personal information. ALGC is not responsible for any access to your identity, profile, or personal information by third parties. It is the express responsibility of the user to protect the user's identity, profile, and personal information.

Any statements made by individuals are solely his/her own and do not represent the opinions or viewpoints or official policies of Assistance League.

These terms of use apply to Assistance League members and non-members alike and are subject to change.
